

Keystone Jack Punch Down Tool

Works with Standard 180 Degree Cat5e/6/6a (Unshielded) UTP Keystone Jacks

Overview

The 180 Degree Keystone Jack Punch Down Tool is used to terminate keystone jacks that deliver consistent and nice terminations. This tool is one-handed operation seats & cuts all eight wires together with one motion, making your keystone jack neat and clean while wiring the network cabling. It will save you time and money by easily punch down all wires at the same time with a quick squeeze.

Benefits

- Punches Down and Trims All 4 Pairs with Just One Crimp
- One-handed Operation with an Ergonomically Designed Handle
- Works with Standard 180 Degree Cat5e/6/6a (Unshielded) UTP Keystone Jacks
- Increases Termination Speed and Accuracy Massively
- Reduces the Possibility of Damaging Your Keystone Jack or Ethernet Cable
- Has Retaining Ring to Keep the Crimper Closed when is Not Been Used

Specifications

Product Type	Punchdown Tool
Blade Type	110
Material of Blade	Alloyed Steel
Material of Body	SPCC
Working Temperature	-10 to 60°C (14 to 140°F)
Relative Humidity	10 to 90%

Layout and Dimensions

